

SEEN, HEARD
AND TOLD
BY THE EDITOR

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.—Acts 4:20.

Did you ever get tired and feel badly nearly all the time? I am and do. I am seriously considering retiring shortly. I am 65 years old and have reached the age when Uncle Sam, who has been getting money
from me a long time, has promised to give a little of the money back to me.

The FFA campette of Grenada
Lake is beginning to be used to advantage by Soil Conservation members and allied folks. A very enjoyable meal and a fine get-together was enjoyed there Tuesday night. In my pocket is an invitation to be present there from Mr. Mauldin, director of state vocational education, for a meeting to be held Wednesday afternoon
next. A lotta big shots will be there.

Brother Bond, the State Welfare Director, was kind enough to send me a piece about the meeting held here Saturday and in which he said
what a lotta folks said. In case you are interested, ask me and I will show you the release. We just nint got room for it.

The Greenwood merchants surely wanted me to attend the big sales event being held there today, tomorrow and the next day. They left on my front porch Wednesday EIGHT complete, neatly folded 12-page circulars detailing the good things to be had in Greenwood.

Green Street neighbors will be proud and happy to learn that our associate and fisherman, J. Dennis, caught the biggest one of a big bunch of cupples caught by him and Andrew at mid Tuesday.

Subscriber R. W. Parham, here
from Newport, Ark. to attend Mrs.
West's funeral Wednesday, paid his general.

William M. Theisman and M. M.
Bates, both trained accountants,
have associated themselves and will open an office in the new Grenada Bank Building.

Just as soon as Fisherman Daves gets his sneller tuned up, he and I are going out to the lake and smell out a big bunch of bass.

The boys are getting on right well with Grenada wildlife club house and entire on near Lonesome Pine. It is going to be a grand thing for its members and guests.

Our old friend Kirk, who ought by now to know better, got out, riding over cotton rows and chasing yearling early this week, is back in bed.

A Democratic Congressman wrote in to secure another copy of last week's issue of the GCW. He wanted the Democratic Digest to reproduce the list of accomplishments of the past administration. The joke was the whole business was detailed in blank
space last week.

Fisherman Friedman and I went to fishing on the lake Sunday and caught 27 bass big enough to keep. The little ones we know as Speck Davis's
and Harry Gordens, we pitched back into the lake to grow.

Even if Andrew Carothers and Bill
Petric have moved out of the old Mc-Lean building, there is still "law" in the building, as John Keeton, a recent Old Mess graduate, has opened up his law offices there. John also renewed his oldtime practice of getting the GCW regularly, a practice
he followed all during the late war
as well as at Old Mess.

Bob Sartwell was supposed to have come to Goldsmith's Saturday to see Fred Muggs, the television star
on visit to that department store. He invited the GCW's professor of that famous character to go along.

Lillian over at the cafe, it is reported is going to participate in the next Christmas parade.

As we usually do, we have a bunch
of Christmas cards for the po' folks.
Each with name imprinted on the card. Some in boxes of fifty cards, some in boxes of twenty five cards.
Nothing TOO fancy, nothing too high.

Our neighbor and paper catcher,
Maracasalo, renewed his subscription recently and so did Mrs.
Ross of Greenwood.

Number 29 In A Series Of 52

—This Series Sponsored by Jitney-Jungle, Grenada.

If this is YOUR farm, you can get, without charge, a nicely mounted picture of the

While you are in the GCW office, we hope to interview you and get a story, for subsequent publication, about this property and about your family.

If you need other photographs of the above, either the size shown, or larger, or on postal cards, the GCW can, and will arrange for them. A reasonable charge, of course, will be made for these reproductions. Let us show you samples.

Grenada Farm Bureau In Big Membership Drive

The Grenada Farm Bureau is now in the midst of a membership drive aimed at building membership in the organization to 400 in 1955.

The campaign was launched at a kick-off meeting of Farm Bureau officials, membership workers and other leaders held in Grenada on Friday, November 5. The drive will be culminated with a Victory meeting of the organization to be held at City Hall
in Grenada on Friday, November 19, at 7 p. m. Membership workers will report on number of members enrolled at the Victory meeting.

J. W. Willis, Grenada, Route 4, chairman of the campaign, said that membership workers plan to contact every farmer in the county and invite him to become a member of the Farm Bureau during this drive. He pointed out that the goal of 400 members in Grenada County represents an increase of 100 over the membership of the current year, but said he was confident that the goal could be met with diligent effort on the part of the membership solicitors and others
active in the campaign.

The following are serving as membership workers in the drive:

J. W. Willis, J. W. Willis Jr., Robert
Burk, Guy Hendricks, George Yea-
ger, Avert McElwath, W. E. Smith, Jr., J. I. Mitchell, Jr., Sam Gillon,
James Shaw, Judson Dorroh, David L.
Halle, Mrs. Bob Stroud, J. D. Blakey,
George Williams, L. A. Dubard, B. A.
Little, John Little, E. L. Fite, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. T. E.
Ligon, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hall, Clayton Carpenter, C. O. Sennett, Donald Skellton, Marshall Dunn, Joe Neely,
E. H. White.

Mr. Sam Thompson and his charming wife honored the group with their presence and Mr. Thompson, who is a field man for the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation gave a most inspiring impromptu talk.

SCOUT CAMPAIGN IN FINAL STAGES

The Grenada area of the Boy Scout Camp Development Campaign is in the final stages and already more money has been collected than last year. Today the total stands at $2,250, 60and over half of the Lieutenant workers not reported to the Captains.

"The above report would sound
more like victory," said Felix Sutphin, local chairman, "if the goal and need
had not been so high for this particular time."

Mr. Sutphin stated further that 5,000 boys - many of them Grenadians - are hoping to go to a safe and adequate camp at Tallahassee this summer and the only way they will have it is for the workers to see the folk and for the folk to give until they are glad.

Attention: Candidates

The GCW hopes that candidates will not be too fast in announcing, certainly not until well along in the
the year 1955, but we are telling what we propose to do for them and what it will cost them.

Here is what we will do for all candidates and what our service will cost them:

We will run a story of the announcement. We will put the name in the candidates announcement column and keep it there every week until election.
We will give each candidate 500 printed "announcement" cards.

Charges will be: for supervisor, $15;
for Chancery Clerk, $25; for Sheriff, Circuit Clerk, Assessor and Supt. of Education, $20; for Coroner and Ranger and for J.P.'s and Constables, $5;
for legislature and senate and for district offices in general $10.

Old man Lewis Dubard and wife have got back from a fine trip to New England and intermediate points,
reports he feels fine and he had enough money left to pay his own subscription and that of two grown children.

About "Sunny

Actual construction of the possible 381 houses was Monday in the newly-laid out subdivision, Sunny Crest.

Sunny Crest subdivision tract of 172 acres in the Donald Ross part of the estate of the late D. G. Ross and is located in the Ross old pasture which lies between U. S. Highway No. 51 and the western limits of this land. It is immediately across the highway from the tract of land acquired by the McQuay Company for the early start of the air-conditioning factory.

In this subdivision, laid off by Messrs. John Smith and Dick Smith, engineers, there are 381 lots, ranging in size from 75x150 to 150x150, about 10 acres in the northern part of the tract as a shopping center and about a similar acreage in the southern end for utilities. Streets have been laid off on the plat of the property. Plans have been carefully made for distribution of water in the area, as well as for disposal of sewerage. As a matter of fact a six inch artesian well has already been dug. A corporation for water distribution and sale has already been formed. Donald Ross and John Andrews are officers of this corporation.

To show how this Grenada area has grown, it should be noted that this sub-division, Sunny Crest, is larger by about 20 acres than old Pittsboro, the first incorporated town in what is now the City of Grenada. There was only a quarter of a section in old Pittsboro.

Sunny Crest is a dream child of Donald Ross and not, as some may think, the result of the location of McQuay across the highway. Donald has been thinking, dreaming and planning for something like this for several years. The thought came to him of John Andrews, who knows a lot about building and planning homes, would be a valuable addition to the organization, so John is "in" the scheme. What about money, both thought, and Preston Vance's name came into the picture, so Preston furnishes enough money for the scheme to keep rolling. As stated elsewhere, Donald Ross owns the land and, in the opinion of the writer, has shown remarkably good judgment in keeping the property intact, that is with no hamburger, beer joints or country groceries.

The general plan is this: the local organization will build the home, with location, material and building progress to be approved by the FHA. The home owner will buy the property from Ross et al. He will borrow the money from the 1st Federal which will collect installments as due. The FHA will "stand behind" the whole business.

In general, the whole subdivision
will be under strict, but sensible restrictions. It is planned to be a group of pretty, comfortable homes, with commercial enterprises restricted to the shopping center area, each house
to have a minimum of 700 square feet floor space and a minimum value of $5500.00. There is to be maintained a system of set-backs which will be pleasing to the individual owners as well as the whole area.

While 12 new homes are right now
being built and will be ready for sale within a short time, the scheme is not that ALL lots will be occupied right off the bat, but the whole subdivision will be built "to" a general plan which will ultimately be realized.

While the writer does not wish to be technical in anything he writes, it seems that the FHA's Birmingham office has heartily approved the survey of the tract and the lay-out selected by Ross et al. is approving the footings of the buildings, will approve the construction of each home as construction progresses and will "bless" each unit when completed. Not only that, but this FHA office has been very complimentary of the whole layout and set-up.

Ten-year-old Joe Cooper and his mongrel dog down Monroe Louisiana way, continue to appear in the news. Little Joe, you will recall is the boy who went to school one day and his dog Tippy followed him. The teacher had the dog caught and locked in the basement and phoned the dog catcher to come after him. Well, little Joe couldn't stand that so he went home for his shot gun and came back to get his dog and would have succeeded had not the police come into the fray. It is not advised or permitted for little boys to argue their disputes with shot guns and we know Joe realizes that fact. But let us think of this in another light. Suppose a group of big men at least five feet taller than you or I start to cuff us around and taking our things away from us. I believe we would be inclined to go get the shot gun to help us with our rights. You see grown people so often fail to see a problem on a level of a child - for how can they as most of us stand towering over a child and refuse to stoop down to talk with him or to hear his side of a story. It is an adult world you know. Theater seats, drinking fountains, bus and train seats, elevators, cars, soda fountains, store counters, all are made for adults with never a thought of the younger people's convenience. Besides these physical things we adults often stand just as tall over the kids and their world in our mental activity.

Joe Cooper care of Webb School for Boys, Bell Buckle, Tennessee.

Dear Joe: We are sorry you had to threaten those people with your shot gun, you were really out of bounds with that gun you know, but we share in your happiness that now you have found a wonderful home and school as result of tender hearted Americans who heard about you and your troubles and have contributed a lot of money for your education and welfare, and long after people have forgotten teacher Tina Clark, truant officer Morris Griggs, and City Judge Howell Heard, who so shamefully misunderstood you, you may be superintendent of education for the State of Louisiana. If we are around then we will lend our support toward it.

INGRATITUDE — "Insensibility to kindness" or "Absence of thankfulness" . . . well, what ever the definition, ingratitude has a long and ugly past. I guess Lucifer, the fallen rebel angel invented ingratitude. Adam and Eve also practiced it and after them a long line of descendants right into this day of 1964. Ingratiude is born and nurtured in the dwarfed cells of pride and self-sufficiency and its fruits are fears, unhappiness and loneliness. Some people cannot say "thank you" without pain, and some do not realize when others are showing them kindness. Rich or poor, literate or illiterate people are never really happy when the gratitude is impoverished. To receive and feel grateful for something is wonderful but to give something freely to an appreciative person is embracing the noblest and highest quality of physical being. Say thank you, and often, and teach yourself gratitude or quit looking for happiness for it isn't for you.

SEEN, HEARD & TOLD BY THE EDITOR

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard—Acts 4:20.

Thursday, R. J. Stoker sent in a perfect cluster of frost-killed apples from a tree in his home yard.

Ross Barnett, perennial candidate for governor, sent in an order Friday for a subscription to the GCW.

I learned this, when getting information about Mt. Lore property, whose picture is shown again elsewhere, that it is owned by the Dunbar Land Company which, in turn, is owned by an old 76-years-old bachelor, B. B. Dunbar of Uvalde, Texas. He is said to be a very rugged old character and, often when he comes to Mississippi, drives his own pick-up; that he started the cattle business over 60 years ago with two cows and one bull; that the many thousands of cattle he now owns came from the original herd of three cattle. Knowing that the bull is half the herd, he has always bought and kept good bulls.

Mr. Dunbar USES grass; he does not kill grass.

Sunday morning, I went around with Cousin Junius Townes to see how the reconstruction of the Golladay old mansion, now owned by Junius as his home, is coming on. If you care, to see a magnificent job, get Junius or Adelai to show you the place. This will be one of Grenada's show places along about the first of December when the Townes' hope to move in. To have appreciated it better, one should have seen it when the place was stripped down to the rigid hand-hewn framing.

At the moment, I am for J. P. Coleman as candidate for Governor, and I hardly ever change my mind, once made up

W. R. Jones of Mt. Lore is a new subscriber. He is Mr. Dunbar's manager of the huge cattle enterprise on the Townes old property in Beat 4.

Out at the new Ross subdivision, I had cause to remark about something. I had remarked on previously, that somebody in the connection surely had plenty of sense, to have held that acreage intact and not be tempted to sell off a hamburger joint here, a grocery store there and a beer joint elsewhere. As it is today, the Rosses don't have to worry with these extraneous small ownerships in the tract. The tract is today a subdivision and nothing else.

As people increase and as land does not increase at all, land owners everywhere are going to have to be more and more careful about what they do with land today, else they may get into trouble tomorrow.

"Farm of the Week" - Last Week

—This Series Sponsored by Jitney-Jungle, Grenada.

The scene shown above is the farm and ranch headquarters of the Mt. Lore 2,000 acres of 6,600 acres, all in one part of Beat 4, Grenada County, Mississippi.

The home shown is that of Dick Jones who is general manager of this huge tract who looks after business in this section for the present owner, Mr. B. B. Dunbar of Uvalde, Texas. The site of the home is that of the early 1890 settler who moved here in the early part of that century and settled and named the site and the 2,000 acres on the northern edge of Yalobusha Valley, Mt. Lore. Its first owner was Rhoades Baker.

Over ten years ago, Ben W. Townes, a native son of Grenada who had prospered in the cotton brokerage Texas who later assumed management business, began his effort to obtain for himself a huge ranch in his native country, bought first the Mt. Lore 2,000 acres of 6,600 acres, all in one part of Beat 4, Grenada County, Mississippi.

The home shown is that of Dick Jones who is general manager of this huge tract who looks after business in this section for the present owner, Mr. B. B. Dunbar of Uvalde, Texas. Lore. Its first owner was Rhoades Baker.

After considerable negotiations, the whole property was sold to Mr. B. B. Dunbar, a big cattleman of Uvalde, Texas who later assumed management of his property. The sales price, while never publicly disclosed, was known to aggregate many hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The Dunbar holdings constitute the largest holding of improved land in this county if not in this entire half section of the state.

Mt. Lore is about ten miles north-west of Grenada and is in Beat 4, a fractional part of the county. For several generations it was one of the finest man-mule cotton farms of the county. Today, cotton has almost, if not wholly been abandoned as a cash crop. It is almost exclusively used as a cattle-grass enterprise.

What has happened to Mt. Lore and the other Townes lands, is a typical example of what happened to the "old cotton" South.

Does Bad Climate Cause Colds?

No, colds occur in widely different climates at about the same season. They affect about the same percentage of people in one region as in another. Apparently the greatest contributing factor is the change to indoor crowding, especially in schools, during the winter months. Children acquire and transmit the disease more readily than adults.

Your doctor can give you advice which points much toward protecting you from colds.

Forestry News
(by Gerald Stevens)

There is a good chance that you have the habit that causes wild wood fires. What do you do with your cigarette when you finish with it. Do you stop and grind it out with your foot or do you toss it into the street? Fires don't start from cigarettes or matches thrown into the street; but, if you follow that practice in town, there is a good chance that you will do the same when you are in the woods.

You are probably thinking now that the only time you throw your cigarette or match away is when you are in town on a paved street. But people are creatures of habit. Say if you smoke one package of cigarettes while you are in the woods, the chances are great that you will slip back into that old habit, at least once. It takes only one cigarette, or one match, tossed into the right kind of fuel to start a woods fire.

If you are still doubtful of the seriousness of fires caused by smokers, look at the record. In Grenada County, last year, 50 fires were caused by smokers. These fires burned 397 acres, wreaking a damage of $1,263.00.

Smoker fires are one of the leading causes of woods fires in Grenada Co. We can lessen this unwarranted abuse to our woodlands by using our ash trays when we are in the car; by crushing cigarettes under our heel; and by making sure matches are dead-out by breaking them in two before throwing them away.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE OBSERVES ANNUAL LUNCHEON

On Wednesday noon, members of Grenada Civic Improvement League gathered at the Barwin Hotel Coffee Shop for their annual luncheon.

The two long white draped tables, closed at the north end of the dining room by tables where the President and honor guests sat, were beautifully decorated with rich Autumn colors radiating from clusters of rich grapes and oranges interspersed by sprays of Southern smilax, huckleberry, ivy and rich colored Autumn leaves.

The speaker's table held a richly bedecked basket of fruit, artificial flowers and colorful leaves. Places were arranged for 33 guests.

Mrs. H. J. Ray Sr., president, presided in her usual gracious manner. Mr. John McEachin said grace.

The turkey dinner with dressing and vegetables, fruit cocktail, green salad and dessert course of pineapple upside down cake, topped with whipped cream, served with coffee, was a bountiful and delicious luncheon.

Mrs. Ray gave a history of the club and spoke most sincerely concerning future plans to improve Grenada. She introduced the following speakers, Atty. W. H. Fedric, who is Grenada County Chamber of Commerce Chairman of Industries. He spoke for about an hour on our aims, our needs and the know how of making Grenada the finest town in Mississippi.

Mr. John Brewer, president of the Chamber of Commerce, stressed the fact that Grenada, with its beautiful Grenada Lake, is "going to have company," and it behooves Grenadians to clean up and beautify our town. City Manager John McEachin said he had listened to the discussion for the betterment of Grenada with great interest and was going to say "Amen" to all that had been said.

David Y. Dubard and Monroe Looney, two active members of the C of C, spoke briefly on the beauty of trees in the City of Grenada; also on the need of educating the citizens to clean up all litter in and about Grenada including advertising signs along our highways.

Much was said, and we hope much will be done to improve and benefit our fair City of Grenada, which is steadily growing and improving.

On the Arrangement Committee for the luncheon were Mesdames C. H. Calhoun Sr., R. Biens, and Rose Kosman. The Decorating Committee members were Mesdames Claude Perry Grover Long and J. H. Neely Sr.

After the games refreshments were served.

MRS. FISHER COMPLIMENTED

SHELLEY WYATT BORN NOV. 4TH

Mrs. W. L. Wyatt, widow of Lt. Wyatt, whose tragic death occurred in October when his plane crashed at Ft. Bragg, N. C. has announced the arrival of a little daughter, named Shelley, on Nov. 4, 1934 at the base hospital at Ft. Bragg. Mrs. Wyatt is the former Polly Richardson of Grenada and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Richardson also of Grenada, are with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Revell spent Tuesday in Memphis.

BABY'S HEART IS MENDED

To the GCW readers who also read Life Magazine, it is of interest, to all who read the article and saw the pictures in Life's Nov. 1st issue of "A Baby's Heart is Mended," that the little 5 months old girl, Marsha Gilliam who underwent this delicate operation, is a first cousin of Craig Salter who visited his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Salter at Duck Hill, January thru August of this year, and is now in California with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Salter.

Those of us who know Craig, can easily note the resemblance to Marsha as picture in Life. This tiny girl was born with a hole in her heart and surgeons at U. of Minn. Hospital successfully closed it. The baby's mother, Mrs. Jim Gilliam literally gave her body over to her child, risking her life to sustain her during the lengthy operation.

Mr. Jim Gilliam and Mrs. Bill Salter are brother and sister.

The operation, itself, was a success but according to Mrs. H. T. Salter of Duck Hill, grave concern is expressed for the little girl's life in a letter she received from California.

Miss Maude

In memory of Mrs. W. S. Willis, who we all knew and loved as Miss Maude.

Miss Maude was a wonderful person to know. Gifts of all kinds she did bestow. Gifts with no limit to their worth. She was a saint placed here on earth.

The gift of laughter and the gift of love; she knew they all came from above. A material gift to one in need. Each day she tried to do one good deed.

She'd bring some food she had prepared; And which she wanted someone else to share. She loved to read and share that too. So she'd drop by with a poem for you.

Sunday School and Church won't be the same - Nor Prayer Service - for she always came. But Miss Maude left something here; For all of us love and hold her memory dear.

She left, as a beacon, her daily life; Which will help guide us in all our strife. She tried to let her light so shine; That through her, lost ones, could Jesus find.

They laid her to rest neath the Autumn trees. And her darlings sang in the quiet breeze: We know that Heaven is richer by far; For we've lost and they've gained a beautiful star.

—By Mrs. Earl Gillion.

Farm Irrigation Loans

Questions And Answers About Public Law 597

Authorizing Federal Loans Up To $25,000

Public Law 597, 83rd Congress, makes available to farmers a new type of credit for financing soil conservation measures and extends the water facility loan program to the entire Nation. A series of questions and answers explaining the details of this new legislation follows:

Q. When is a farmer eligible for soil and water conservation loans?

A. A farmer is eligible when he has sufficient experience or training to indicate that he has reasonable prospects of conducting successful farming operations, and is unable to obtain the necessary credit on reasonable terms and condition from private and cooperative sources.

Q. When is an association eligible for a loan?

A. Such nonprofit associations as incorporated water associations, mutual water and drainage companies, irrigation and drainage districts, and soil conservation districts are eligible for a loan when they are unable to obtain adequate credit elsewhere and meet certain other conditions.

Q. Who determines the eligibility of applicants?

A. The local three-member county committee of the Farmers Home Administration. Those committees are composed of men, at least two of whom are farmers, who are familiar with local agricultural conditions and whose judgment is established and respected in the community in which they reside.

Q. Where can a farmer apply for these loans?

A. At the local county office of the Farmers Home Administration. There are approximately 1,500 of these offices serving all agricultural counties throughout the United States, Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

Q. What can the loans be used for?

A. The loans can be used to pay cash costs of materials, equipment, and services directly related to the application or establishment of soil and water conservation practices, water facilities, and drainage.

Q. What are some examples of the soil and water conservation practices for which these loans can be made?

A. Construction or repair of terraces, dikes, and ponds; pasture improvement, basic application of lime and fertilizer, tree planting, and similar measures.

Q. What are examples of some of the water facilities that can be financed with these loans?

A. Tanks, cisterns, wells, pumping and irrigation equipment, and similar facilities.

Q. Can loans be made for annual application of fertilizer in the production of corn, cotton and other crops?

A. No. These loans cannot be made for any annually recurring costs that generally are considered as farm operating expenses.

Q. Will veterans be given preference for these loans?

A. Applications from veterans will receive preference in processing.

Q. Can the loans be used to refinance existing debts?

A. No.

Q. What will be the interest rate?

A. On insured loans the interest rate will be 4 percent per year on the unpaid principal. In addition, each insured loan borrower will pay each year in advance an annual loan insurance charge of 1 percent on the unpaid principal. On loans made from appropriated funds the interest rate will be 5 percent.

Q. Is there any limit on the total amount of loans that can be insured throughout the Nation?

A. Loans totaling up to $25 million may be insured each year.

Q. What is the difference between a direct and an insured loan?

A. There is no basic difference. Applications for all soil and water conservation loans are made at the county offices of the Farmers Home Administration. County committees of the Farmers Home Administration determine the eligibility of all applicants for soil and water conservation loans.

Q. Will adequate private funds be available to meet the demand for insured loans up to the maximum amount of $25 million that can be insured in any one year?

A. There is every indication that private funds will be available.

Q. Who is responsible for processing and servicing insured loans?

A. The Farmers Home Administration processes the insured loans and collects the payments.

Q. Have any funds been appropriated for direct Government loans?

A. $11,500,000 has been appropriated for the year ending June 30, 1935.

Q. When do the loans have to be repaid?

A. Each loan will be scheduled for repayment within the shortest period consistent with the ability of the borrower to repay. No loan will be scheduled for repayment over a period which exceeds the useful life of the improvement or the security, whichever is less. In no case will the repayment period on loans to individuals engaged in farming exceed 20 years. Loans to associations can be repaid over periods up to 40 years.

Q. Will a borrower be required to refinance his loan when he is able to do so?

A. Each borrower will be required to refinance the unpaid balance of his loan when he is able to obtain a loan at reasonable rates and terms from private or cooperative credit sources.

Q. Is there any limit to the amount that can be loaned to an individual, corporation or association?

A. Loans to individuals are limited to $25,000. It is likely that the average loan will be approximately $3,000 to $5,000. Water facility loans last year averaged $4,500. Loans to associations are limited to $250,000.

Q. What security is required for these loans?

A. All loans will be secured by the best lien obtainable on chattels, crops, and real estate to the extent necessary to adequately protect the Government's investment.

Q. Where will farmers obtain the engineering assistance in planning and installing the improvements financed with these loans?

A. Applicants will obtain whatever engineering assistance they need from the Soil Conservation Service, Extension Service, other agencies, private individuals, and firms. Technical assistance of this sort from the Farmers Home Administration will be limited to a review of the engineering feasibility and economic soundness of the improvements to be financed. The Farmers Home Administration will also take whatever steps are necessary to make sure that loans are used for authorized purposes and that the construction carried on with loan funds meets required standards.

Q. What steps will be taken to couple this loan service with services of other agricultural agencies?

A. Loans will be made to carry out the types of soil and water conservation practices that are recommended by the Extension Service, the Soil Conservation Service, and other agricultural agencies.

Q. Will the county supervisors of the Farmers Home Administration help borrowers prepare farm and home plans and work with them throughout the year to give whatever assistance is needed to carry out the improvement in their farming methods that are made possible by these loans?

A. County supervisors with the assistance of county committeemen will decide the extent to which this kind of assistance is necessary. In general, farmers who are using loan funds to finance major land use adjustments and extensive reorganization of the farm business will receive guidance in the development and execution of sound farm and home plans.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Scriptures: Proverbs 11:24-33; 13:7; 15:13-17; 16:8, 10; 20:11-13; 22:1-3, 9; 28:6-28.
Devotional Reading: Matthew 6:24-33.

Study in Values

Lesson for November 14, 1954

IS IT a sin to be rich? The Bible does not say so. A poor man may be better or worse than a rich man. It is not the property of a man that is most important; it is his personality. The Bible does warn us about the dangers of wealth; and since in our time (as back yonder too) nearly everybody thinks it would be wonderful to be rich and that money is the answer to most problems, the Bible's warnings are almost the only ones we can ever hear.

Dr. Foreman

When Money Comes First

There is one special danger that runs through all the others: the danger of putting money first. We say "What is So-and-so worth?" when we ought to say "How much money does he have?" A worthless rascal may be very rich. The United States has found it necessary to deport men who could buy you out, dear reader, and me too. If we put money first, we measure men by a crooked yardstick. Then if we think of money as the most desirable thing in life—or property of any sort, not money alone—we shall cut corners to get it. If it were true that money is the principal thing, then we would lie and steal to get it—just as many persons do. Think of the lies told every day in the business world, recall the wealthy men who have been convicted of evading their taxes. Once think of money as Value Number One, and you will begin excusing all the sins, provided a man has a big enough pile.

Fancy Front

You could have an interesting time collecting the lies that are connected in one way or another with money. Proverbs points out that some rich men pretend to be poor and some poor men pretend to be rich. That sounds funny but it's a fact. On every street in the more exclusive residential sections of cities there live families who are trying to give the impression of being better off than they are. The house is bigger than they can afford, they really keep themselves in debt pretending not to be in debt! And then there are the rich who pretend to be poor. These are not all Texas millionaires trying to look like cow-boys. When the church (for instance) takes its every-member canvass and approaches some one who is known to be wealthy though not generous and who may have just bought an expensive car, how familiar is the response: "I'd be glad to increase my pledge but I can't afford it!"

Treasure and Trouble

Pastors of wealthy congregations, lawyers and doctors too, can tell you they know people who would be able to shed their troubles, or most of them, if they just could lose their money. The reader can verify this by reading any newspaper for a few weeks and checking up on head-lined tales of people in trouble. Not always, but often, the trouble started either because the person involved had too much money, or because he wanted money too much. Alcoholism, for instance; who are the alcoholics you know? Are most of them busy people in moderate circumstances, or are they people with more time and money on their hands than they know quite what to do with? Or take the divorce stories. At the time this column is being written the story is being headlined of a nationally notorious divorce. Readers are led to believe that neither the marriage nor the divorce would have taken place if the young man had been, say, a school teacher or a plasterer. His millions were bait—as any one could have guessed.

A Good Name Is Better

When some smart Alec (or Alice) asks you, "If money isn't the best thing there is, name me something better," you can quote Proverbs right away: "A good name is better than riches." (This isn't the only better thing, but it is one.) It is not always necessary to choose between the good name and the money; but ask the man who has both, which he would rather have. He will tell you, his good name, of course. When a business is sold, the "good will" sometimes comes at a higher figure than the place and all its fixtures and inventory. For what people think of you is far more important to you.

SOIL CONSERVATION

(By Rex R. Blue, SCS)

A number of cooperators of the Grenada County Soil Conservation District are taking advantage of weather and soil conditions to install drainage ditches on their farms.

J. G. Carter has excavated approximately 300 feet of V-type ditches on his farm in the Spears neighborhood. District technicians are assisting Mr. Carter in preparing a conservation plan for the farm.

Mr. Craig Mullens has excavated 800 feet of secondary drainage ditch on his farm at Holcomb. The ditch was designed and laid out by SCS employees.

Approximately one million pine seedlings will be available through the district for the 1954-55 planting season. The seedlings will be furnished without cost to interested farmers who will agree to plant the seedlings on land not subject to grazing.

A recent study of land capabilities in Grenada County show that approximately 70 percent of the land is best suited for growing timber. Every farmer who has steep or gullied land not suitable for crops or pasture is urged to plant such areas to trees. The trees, not only will provide a future source of income, but will help to provide land cover, retard runoff, and prevent flooding and silting.

Farmers interested in ditching or pond construction should plan to have the work done before bad weather.

Mr. Bond, head of the state welfare department, was in Grenada Saturday where he made a talk about the vexing problems of his department. The GCW used to call him the "school trust."
